Ephesians 6:1-9

Lesson 13

Authority is a divine plan. Therefore, God has instructions for both the one who is to obey and the one given authority. Both are to carry out their positions with the Lord as their purpose and their example. As we study God's instructions, may we receive them knowing they are given by our all-wise, all-loving Father.

DAY ONE: Read Ephesians 6:1-9

1. Read through this week's verses using both your Observation Worksheet and another Bible translation or paraphrase. After reading through these verses, what would you say to someone if they asked you what they were about?
  - a. Ephesians 6:1-9 has been divided into 2 sections. List below the subjects(s) covered in each section.

Verses 1-4

Verses 5-9

How would you title this section? Record your titles on the Chapter & Paragraph Division Titles Chart provided with your Observation Worksheet.

2. At the right-hand side of the same chart are columns labeled Key Word and Symbol. They have been provided for you to record the key words and the symbol you have chosen to represent each one. Record the key words listed below and their symbols on the chart.

God and Jesus (Christ/Lord/Master)

New to this lesson: children, parents (father, mother), bondservants (slave), and masters

Contrast: but

Now, using the symbols you have chosen, mark each of the key words each time they are used in Ephesians 6:1-9. Remember, as you mark the words for God, Jesus, and many of the other words that are new to this lesson, to mark any personal pronouns that refer to them.

3. This section of Ephesians continues Paul's teaching on submission. List below the instructions given. (Note: we will look at the instructions in detail as we continue this lesson. For now, simply record the basic instruction.)

Children:

Fathers:

Bondservants:

Masters:

4. God rewards obedience. What reward for obedience does God give to:

Children:

Bondservants:

5. God also warns those who rule over others. What is His warning to:

Fathers:

Masters:

DAY TWO: Read Ephesians 6:1-3

1. Having examined the marriage relationship in lesson 12, we now turn our attention to the attitudes and actions of the parent/child relationship and the bondservant/master or employee/employer relationship. What is the first relationship addressed in Ephesians 6:1-4?

2. What are children commanded to do?

- a. Why (according to verse 1) should children obey their parents?

- 1.) What does Psalm 19:8 say about the statutes and commandments of the Lord?

3. Read Ephesians 6:2. What is the first commandment with a promise?

Challenge: Define the word honor using a Bible dictionary.

- a. Describe the attitude or behavior of a child who honors this commandment.

4. The promise is recorded in verse 3. What two things does God promise as a result of keeping this commandment?
5. God promises to reward obedient children. But, He also promises to punish disobedient children. What are the warnings of the following verses:
Deuteronomy 27:16
Proverbs 20:20
6. It is not only the responsibility of children to obey their parents, it is the responsibility of parents to teach children to obey. What are some ways a parent should do this?

DAY THREE: Read Ephesians 6:4

1. As children are to honor their parents, parents are to honor their children. They are to properly use their parental authority. According to Ephesians 6:4, what are fathers not to do?
  - a. What are some synonyms for the word provoke?
2. Colossians 3:21 gives a similar warning. It also adds a consequence to being provoked. What is it?
  - a. How might a child become discouraged as a result of being provoked by his/her father?
3. Rather than provoking a child, what does Ephesians 6:4 instruct the father to do?
4. According to Proverbs 22:6, what is the result of training a child in the way they should go?
  - a. What do you think this means?
5. Read Deuteronomy 6:6-9. What is the prerequisite for parents in teaching their children God's Word?
  - a. In what ways might a parent fail to properly teach a child if they do not first meet this requirement?
  - b. How thorough should parents be when teaching God's Word to their children?

6. Solomon knew his responsibility as a father. What advice did he write to his children in:

Proverbs 4:1

Proverbs 19:18

Proverbs 22:15

Proverbs 29:17

- a. If you were to write Proverbs to your child/children, what advice would you give them?
(If you do not have children, what would you write as general advice to children?)

DAY FOUR: Read Ephesians 6:5-8

1. This section of Ephesians addresses a different relationship. What is it?

- a. If you lived long ago and were a slave, what would be the worst part of being someone's property?

- 1.) What would you have expected from a Christian master that you would not from someone who was not a Christian?

Note: We no longer deal with the bondservant/master relationship today. We do, however, deal with the employee/employer relationship. For the purpose of this lesson, employees might be a better word than bondservants and employer might be a better word than masters. Keep in mind, we do recognize that an employee has rights that a bondservant did not and a master had rights that employers today do not. Also, this portion should be applied to many other relationships where one person is sub-ordinate to the leadership of another.

2. According to Ephesians 6:5, how should employees (bondservants) respond to their employers (masters)?

- a. What might be a modern-day description of behavior described as fear and trembling?

3. What should be the condition of the employee's heart?

- a. The verse closes with the words as to Christ. In Colossians 3 we find a parallel passage on obedience/submission. Before giving specific instructions regarding obedience, Paul gave general instructions to be applied as we obey/submit. What did he write in Colossians 3:17?

4. Describe the godly obedience of an employee using Ephesians 6:6,7.
5. Ephesians 6:8 reminds us that God sees and rewards us when we do good. What phrase in this verse lets us know that God rewards believers with servant's hearts regardless of their position?
  - a. What is the promise of Proverbs 11:18?

DAY FIVE: Read Ephesians 6:9

1. And in the same way, you masters must treat your slaves right... (Ephesians 6:9 NLT). According to this verse, how are employers to treat their employees?
2. What specifically are employers to give up?
  - a. Define the word threatening.
3. What are employers to know?
  - a. Jesus, the perfect Master became the perfect Servant. What might an employer learn from Jesus' example? See Philippians 2:5-7.
  - b. Read Mathew 20:25-28. How is Jesus' standard for authority contrary to the world's view of authority?
4. In addition to knowing their own Master is in heaven, what are employers also to know? verse 9
  - a. What does Colossians 3:25 say about this?
    - 1.) What does it mean to you that God, knowing each of us so very well, does not show favoritism or rank social status?

DAY SIX: Review Ephesians 6:1-9

1. Each of us has learned from our parents. We have been exposed to both negative and positive parenting. How did you, do you, or will you treat your children differently from the way your parents treated you?

a. What positive behaviors did you, do you, or will you continue to pass along?

2. Rather than provoke children to wrath (exasperate them) we should encourage them. Complete the chart below by listing behaviors that provoke and behaviors that encourage.

Provoke	Encourage

a. Choose two things you will do this week to encourage a child. What will you do?

3. In what ways might you apply the teaching regarding the bondservant/master relationship to your life?
4. How does knowing God rewards obedience encourage you to obey those in authority over you?
5. Describe the believer who serves all people wholeheartedly, as a bondservant of Christ.

*Yet He is not partial to princes,
Nor does He regard the rich more than the poor;
For they are all the work of His hands.*

- Job 34:19
