1. John 8 begins with the woman caught in adultery being brought to Jesus by the religious leaders. The religious leaders were attempting to trap Jesus. What was the trap?
2. Jesus wrote on the ground and all of the leaders left, leaving no one to condemn the woman. What did He say to the leaders as He was writing on the ground?
3. If you remembered these words of Jesus (from Question 2) at all times, how would your life be different?

4. Jesus forgave the woman of her sins. What gives Him the ability and right to do that?

a. Can you back up your answer with Scripture? Give a reference or two.

5. John 8 presents a series of contrasts as Jesus discusses the differences between those who follow Him and those who do not. As you read through the following Scriptures, record what they reveal about each of the following:

John 8:12 (light and darkness)

John 8:21-24 (heaven and earth)

John 8:32-36 (freedom and slavery)

John 8:42-47 (children of God and children of the devil)

John 8: 49-54 (honor and dishonor)

6. SO WHAT!? What has personally impacted you about Jesus in John 8? What are you going to do about it?
